National History Day Advanced Teacher Workshop!

Southeast Service Cooperative

210 Wood Lake Drive, Rochester, MN 55904

(Directions on the Web at www.ssc.coop)

Wednesday, October 29, 2008

9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Fee: Free for teachers of SSC member schools; lunch included

THE ADVANCED TEACHER WORKSHOP is an opportunity for History Day teachers to receive advanced preparation for working on the program this year. The full-day format will include sessions on:

- ⇒ Primary Research and Local History for Out-State Schools
- ⇒ Advanced Theme Discussion and Topic Ideas for 2009
- ⇒ Classroom Management Strategies
- ⇒ Hands-on Activities and Student Examples

These sessions will be led by History Day coordinators and experienced teachers. Participation is strongly encouraged for teachers with experience at all levels, including media specialists and gifted/talented coordinators. History Day is open to students in grades six to twelve.

This workshop is also an opportunity for area teachers to learn more about the three-year federal Teaching American History grant, Blufflands and Prairies: Southern Minnesota's Place in the Fabric of America's Story. This grant will provide classroom and professional development opportunities for Southeast Minnesota history educators.

Instructional and curriculum materials will be available for purchase. The registration deadline is October 22. For questions about the workshop, contact Jessica Ellison, History Day Program Associate, at 651-259-3427. For questions about registration, contact Dick Riley at 507-288-1282.
